Mayor's Report

Shred Day: Larry stated he would like to have a Shred It day for residents. Shred-it charges $200.00 for a shredding bin. He asked if it should be tied in with the large junk day or do it this summer or in the fall. He stated he thinks it would be useful for the residents. George stated he is concerned about electronics on junk day. Larry stated Best Buy takes in old electronics and a place in Middletown as well. Greg stated Best Buy charges $25.00 per unit. Larry stated he will check into electronics recycling. Mike Brown stated Kelly Doyle of Green Meadow Circle set this up for the City one other time.

Brightside: Larry stated the area at I-264 looks better than ever. John Backert is the new landscape manager and he put in new plantings. He stated the City will pay the $2,500.00 bill for the year for the Brightside area. There was a discussion about the bill. Larry stated the City agreed to pay on a yearly basis.

Code Enforcement: Larry stated the Board met on 07/05/16. He stated there were 3 outstanding violations for an inoperable vehicle and on street parking. Payment has been received for the parking violation, but not the inoperable vehicle. He stated the Chief towed an abandoned car on Ambridge Circle. The car was titled to a car dealership. The next meetings will be 08/01/16 and 09/05/16.

4th of July Makeup: Larry stated all events in the County were rained on. It was raining at 1:00 pm and at 2:00 pm the committee decided to cancel. Windy Hills also canceled their celebration. The committee will have a make-up session on 07/25/16 from 6:30 pm – 8:00 pm. There will be ice cream, popcorn, face painting and some games.

Larry stated 1 person had filed to be a candidate for Council seats. He stated 08/09/16 is the filing deadline. Donna stated the office on Barrett is closing and moving to Ormsby.

Larry stated he had received a call from a resident asking if there were 2 different sets of rules for residents and Council. Parking on the street when the driveway is full was the complaint. He reminded Council to make a concerted effort to follow the rules.

Council Focus

Historian/Archivist Donna Rand stated she would be available for pictures next Monday night for the make-up celebration. Larry stated he would like pictures taken of the Council for the website, at the next meeting.

Fences and Permits George gave Scott Horn's report. There were fence permits approved for 4318 Kinloch, 804 Beechwood and 815 Perryman.

Drainage/Sanitation/Block watch George Langford stated he attended Cops & Conversation on 07/29/16. He stated he would post a Block Watch alert about a postcard a resident had received that was a scam. He stated he had posted about a 5th District event. He stated that in May the Westport Terrace & Beechwood culvert needed to be cleared out. He went over and cleared it out. Larry asked Adam to have his mower keep an eye on the area.

Lighting Grid Doug Watson asked Mike Brown if the light at Westport Terrace and Stivers was working. Mike stated it was. Doug stated the light at 4300 Westport Terrace is not functioning. He is trying to get LG&E to clear the tree on the light on Wingate.

Streets & Signs Tom Nunn stated he checked every sign in the City and he repaired 3 of them. Larry stated he had not ordered the tow away zone signs yet.

City Hall Greg Claypool stated City Hall had been cleaned and if anyone sees anything that needs to be done, to let him know. He stated the new flag is up. He wants to wait on the City flag as they are $90.00 each. Larry stated the banners need to be replaced as well. Chana stated there is a resident on Green Meadow Circle that does flags and banners. She will forward his email to Larry.

Doug stated Mike Brown had posted about Vivint solicitors and he wanted to know if the Chief had seen them. Larry stated he had given the solicitor an application and all the information they would need for soliciting in the City. Doug thanked Mike for posting the information.

Tom made a motion to adjourn the meeting. Doug seconded the motion. All voted aye and the meeting was adjourned at 7:41 pm.

Respectfully submitted,

Chana R. Elswick
City Clerk
