City Government

The 2010 mayoral election in Louisville Metro will take place on November 2, 2010 alongside other federal, state and local elections.

If you have not done so, we encourage you to register and vote so that your voice is heard. The offices of Woodlawn Park Mayor and City Council will also appear on the November ballot.

If you are interested in running for Mayor or Council, you can contact the Board of Elections for more information by calling them at 574-6100. Get involved by becoming an official or by participating in other city sponsored activities.
